

Word Aware | Year 5

Summer 1 - words that I am learning in class.

In the summer term the children will be finishing off 'The Explorer' by Katherine Rundell, which was linked to our Amazon topic, and then moving on to read 'Who Let the Gods Out' by Maz Evans which will be linked to a topic on Ancient Greece. These words have been selected to expand the children's vocabulary in both spoken and written form. Below is the list of words with a definition for each:

The Explorer
Week One	Quivering	To move with a slight shaking motion.
	Astonishing	To strike with sudden wonder or surprise.
Week two	Resenting	To feel or state annoyance at something or someone.
	Exquisitely	Finely done or made
Who Let the Gods Out
Week four	Lumbered	To move heavily or clumsily.
	Sophisticated	Very complicated or worldly wise.
Week five	Oblivious	Not being conscious or aware.
	Ecstatic	A state of overwhelming emotion.
Week six	Tentatively	Hesitant or uncertain.
	Scuttling	Run hurriedly with quick short steps.
Week seven	Draped	Arranged casually on or around something.
	Incredulous	A person (or their manner) unwilling to believe or accept something.
Week eight	Delved	Reach inside and search for something.
	Boasted	Talk with a lot of pride about something they have or have done.
Week nine	Reprehensible	Something that is wrong, bad or shameful.
	Simultaneously	Something that happens at the same time.
Week ten	Elaborate	Something that involves lots of complicated and excellent parts.
	Retaliated	Make an attack in reply to a similar attack.
Week eleven	Sumptuous	Something that is magnificent and expensive looking.
	Oppressive	Inflicting harsh or brutal treatment on something or someone.
